

Milwaukie Review

Milwaukie, Oregon, Wednesday, March 26, 1969

Photo courtesy of the Milwaukie Historical Society

Obituary

EDITH HAZEN

Edith Hazen, the first woman to serve on Milwaukie's City Council, died at her home recently in Millbrae, Calif. A resident of Milwaukie from 1919 to 1944, Mrs. Hazen was active in local historical organizations, the Oregon Historical Society, Women's Christian Temperance Union, PTA and other civic associations.

For many years, Mrs. Hazen contributed regularly to The Review in the form of letters, wistful poetry and not infrequently, news and feature articles.

She was born in Denver, Col., and moved to Omaha in 1909. For the past 25 years she has lived in the San Francisco Bay Area, where she authored several books.

Survivors include two sons, Arthur W. Hazen of Sausalito, Calif., and Charles W. Hazen of Millbrae. She also leaves six grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren.

Interment was in Portland's Rose City Cemetery.